STUDENT-ATHLETE ASSISTANCE EXPENSE REQUEST

PERMISSIBLE EXPENSES

Student Assistance Fund (Bylaw 16.11.1.9): The Student Assistance Fund (SAF) is intended to provide direct benefits to student-athletes. All student-athletes are eligible to receive SAF benefits. SAF may not be used for grant-in-aids (other than summer school) for student-athletes with remaining eligibility or outside athletics development opportunities for student-athletes. IPFW has chosen to use SAF primarily for summer term tuition and tuition for fifth year student-athletes who have exhausted eligibility. Remaining funds may be used for academic support, professional development services, emergency expenses or graduate school testing fees.

IPFW Fifth Year Tuition Criteria:

- 1. Previous recipient of an IPFW Athletic Scholarship;
- 2. Exhausted athletic eligibility;
- 3. In good academic standing at IPFW (cumulative GPA of 2.0 or above);
- 4. Completed eligibility in good athletic standing (e.g., did not quit team, was not dismissed from team, was eligible);
- 5. Will graduate at the conclusion of the fifth year; and
- 6. Has never received an "F" grade (applicable only to those student-athletes who were on a full scholarship).

Coaching and/or Athletics Administration Career Educational Programs (Bylaw 16.11.10): An institution may provide actual and necessary expenses to a student-athlete who has completed his/her sixth semester of collegiate enrollment to attend a coaching and/or athletics administration career educational program.
