Explanation	Solution
An academic dismissal is still active on your account.	Contact your academic advisor for assistance.
An advisor or department staff has the student's registration record open. Only one person can be in a student's registration record at a time.	Contact any advisor or department that you recently met. They may still have your record open.
Some PFW sections have seats reserved for IUFW students.	Register for the equivalent PFW section. No override available.
This section requires you to have a specific classification (sophomore, junior, etc.) to enroll.	If recommended by your advisor, your advisor or department can enter an override to allow registration. If not recommended by your advisor, you will not be able to register for this section and should find another section without restrictions.
The section is closed.	This section or crosslist is at max capacity. If waitlisting is available, you may add yourself to the waitlist until a seat becomes available. If not, with the approval of the section instructor and your advisor, either more seats can be added to the section or your advisor can force an override. Otherwise please find another section with available seats.
The course has no available seats.	This section or crosslist is at max capacity and does not have the option to waitlist. With the approval of the section instructor and your advisor, either more seats can be added to the section or your advisor can force an override. Otherwise please find another section with available seats.
This section has no available seats. Waitlisting is available.	You may add yourself to the wait list by selecting Waitlist option under the Action box in the Registration Errors section on the Add/Drop Classes. Watch your PFW email for notification that a seat is available - you will have 24 hours after that email is sent to add yourself to the section. Please monitor your junk email.
The section has no available seats and the waitlist is full.	Please choose another section.

The section requires you to be in a specific cohort to enroll.	This section is restricted by college and only the department can approve an override for cohort restrictions. If not recommended by your department, find another section without restrictions.
The section requires you to be in a specific college to enroll. Also used to designate sections reserved for IUFW students.	This section is restricted by college and only the department can approve an override. If not recommended by your department, find another section without restrictions. No override available if this is a section for IUFW students.
The section requires you to also be enrolled in another course for the same term.	System will not allow registration unless both sections are registered at the same time. Enter CRN (Course Reference Number) for both corequisite courses at the same time in the CRNs boxes below, then click SUBMIT CHANGES to allow entry.
The 5-digit CRN you entered is not recognized by the system.	Check that you entered the correct CRN (Course Reference Number) and that you are registering in the correct semester. CRNs for fall classes begin with 10000; spring classes, 20000; and summer classes, 30000.
This section has degree restrictions.	Some sections only allow a student in a specific degree to register. If approved, and override can be entered by your department or advisor. If not recommended, select another section without restrictions.

The section requires you to be in a specific student level (undergraduate or graduate).	Please contact your advisor for an override. If not recommended, find another course without restrictions.
The course requires you to also be enrolled in lecture and lab for the same term.	System will not allow registration unless both lecture and lab sections are registered at the same time. Enter CRN (Course Reference Number) for both linked sections at the same time in the CRNs boxes, then click SUBMIT CHANGES to allow entry.
You are attempting to enroll in more credits than permitted for the term.	Please contact your advisor for assistance. With the approval of your advisor, they may increase your maximum hours and force an override. If not recommended keep your credits at or below the maximum.
Student athletes and international students have a minimum hours set for registration which will prevent you from dropping below the minimum hour threshold.	Try registering for the new section before dropping the section you no longer want to be enrolled in. If this does not work, please contact your advisor for assistance. With the approval of your advisor, they may need to temporarily remove the minimum hours restriction to allow you to drop sections. Common restriction for student athletes and international students.
The section you are attempting to register for has overlapping content with another course you previously completed.	Please contact your advisor for assistance. With the approval of your advisor, they may work with your department to see if this course should be taken and force an override. If not recommended, select another course without restrictions.
Section is not available for registration at this time.	You should choose another course and/or contact your advisor for assistance.

Although the system is currently showing a seat available, a student already on the wait list has been offered the open seat.	You may add yourself to the wait list by selecting Waitlist option under the Action box in the Registration Errors section on the Add/Drop Classes. Watch your PFW email for notification that a seat is available - you will have 24 hours after that email is sent to add yourself to the section.
The section has prerequisites or test scores that must be completed successfully prior to enrolling in this section.	Please contact your advisor if you feel this is an error. If recommended by your advisor/department, your advisor can enter an override. If not recommended, select another section without restrictions.
