

Eewansaapita Kiihkayonki Fort Wayne Day Camp Camper Agreement

Anyone taking part in the 2012 Eewansaapita Kiihkayonki, or Fort Wayne Myaamia day camp, should agree to the following. Children should discuss this with their parents.

- I will show respect toward the other campers. This means:
 - I will not tease anyone else.
 - I will not hurt anyone else.
 - I will not push, hit, or fight with anyone else.
 - I will not use harsh, foul, or mean language or gestures.
- I will respect my elders. This means:
 - I will listen to the counselors, teachers, and camp staff members.
 - I will do what a counselor, teacher, or camp staff member asks me to do.
 - I will not talk when anyone else is talking to the group.
- I will show respect toward the Myaamia language and culture. This means:
 - I will do my best to learn what the teachers teach me.
 - I will not make fun of any thing I am taught.
 - If someone says something to me in Myaamia, I will do my best to understand it and not demand anyone speak in English.
- I will do my best to learn a lot, to enjoy everyone else, and to have fun!
