

IPFW ATHLETICS

End of Season Exit Interview

To be used for returning Student-Athletes only

Coaches are required to complete this form before reviewing it with the Student-Athlete during the end of season exit interview.

This form was developed so the coaching staff could evaluate each student-athlete who will be returning to the team next season. Areas to be evaluated include the student's academic progress; athletics participation; adherence to team, University, and NCAA rules and regulations; and fulfillment of obligations to the program.

Notes:

7. Based on the above responses, along with your plans for next season's team, will this student-athlete be offered athletic aid for the upcoming academic year?

If NO, why not?

If YES, in what amount?

(July 1 is the NCAA-mandated deadline for informing student-athletes of their athletic aid status for the upcoming season. IPFW Athletics strongly recommends that coaches inform each student-athlete of his/her status much sooner than July 1).

8. Additional comments and/or concerns:

Attention Student-Athletes: Signing this form does not imply that you agree with all elements of the coach's evaluation, but merely states that you have been made aware of your evaluation and your potential status for the next academic year, particularly as it relates to receiving athletic aid.
