

Course	CE 49000 – Selected Topics in Civil Engineering
Type of Course	Elective for Civil Engineering Program
Catalog Description	Special topics that cover one or more topics in civil engineering related to structural engineering, environmental engineering, fluid mechanics, hydraulics, hydrology, geotechnical engineering, transportation engineering, pavement analysis and design, materials, and construction engineering and management. May include laboratory experiments if appropriate. Course may be repeated for credit.
Credits	1-6
Prerequisite Courses	Determined by course offered.
Coordinator	Dong Chen Ph.D., P.E.
Date	24 July 2018